

1915-16 Alaska-Yukon Gazetteer and Business Directory

Cordova

Population, 600. An incorporated City. Situated on Orca Inlet, an arm of Prince William Sound. The harbor is unexcelled in Alaska. Ships of any tonnage being able to enter the year around. It has water, electric light, telephones and sewers.

Has one bank, a first-class hotel, a daily and weekly newspaper, several general stores, and all other businesses well represented.

Has episcopal, Presbyterian and catholic churches, public school and hospital.

Has naval wireless station, U. S. military cable office and custom house. Postmaster, Harry G. Steele.

This is the ocean terminus of the Copper River & Northwestern Railroad, built to the famous Bonanza copper mines of the interior, and coal mines of Controller Bay.

Townsite is covered by U. S. patents. Warranty deeds issued on final payments of lots. Lots sold on easy terms. George C. Hazelet, Trustee.

Shortest Route to the interior.

A daily train of the Copper River & Northwestern Ry. Co., with a dining car service, operates between Cordova and Chitina (continuing on to Kennecott), and from the latter place the mail and three stages per week run in the winter time to Fairbanks. The following distance table will prove handy for those making the trip: ... [table not transcribed]
